Conferences Description
This conference will bring researchers, educators, policy-makers, and providers from across disciplines together with members of the judiciary and those with lived experience. The primary aim is to share knowledge and experience, to advance the rights and highlight the needs of families striving to live well with parental mental health challenges. Related objectives include provision of an interactive forum to discuss common experiences, effective and evidence informed support and advocacy strategies, and contemporary, cutting edge, research.

Conference Objectives
Participants will have opportunity to explore two general theme areas:
• The challenges of parenting for adults with psychiatric disability or mental health concerns
• The impact and challenges for children & young people living in families with parental psychiatric disability or mental health concerns, including those associated with being a young carer

Themes and topics will include:
• Evidence informed supports and services for young people, parents and families
• The legislative/legal barriers parents confront in maintaining custody of their children including interactions with the child welfare system and family law courts
• Strategies for building trust and reducing stigma while supporting parents and children
• Information on how psychiatric disabilities and mental health concerns are experienced by parents and both their young and adult children
• Family recovery strategies for supporting families of various constellations and in a various stages of family life
• The use of technology-based platforms to provide information, training, education and support to parents and families
• Advocacy strategies for supporting families living with parental mental health challenges

Conference Format
This 2.5 day conference will begin with an evening of networking. For the remainder of the conference, presentations and panels will be held both on specific theme and cross theme areas. We will be providing opportunities through the conference for people to gather formally and informally to discuss issues of common concern.
